

Jenny Brennan School of Dance

Newsletter January 2009

The Jenny Brennan School of Dance has had a very exciting 2008. Step in Time (our fourth show) was a huge success and over £147 was raised for Cancer Research in our raffle.

Pupils achieved excellent results in the Royal Academy of Dance and Imperial Society Teachers of Dancing examinations, maintaining a 100% success rate. Our next exams are Modern and Tap in February and Ballet in March.

Chloe Harrison, Faye Podmore, Ellis Whitehurst, Shannon Webb and Siobahn Webb successfully auditioned for Jack and the Beanstalk pantomime at the Crewe Lyceum; Miriam Mould performed in Arabian Nights at the New Vic; and Hope Johnson appeared in Cinderella pantomime at the Queens Theatre, Burslem.

Francesca Lynn, Eve Reynolds and Thomas Scott were accepted onto the Elmhurst School for Dance Pre-Vocational programme joining Francine Collis and Hope Johnson; and Abigail Blackburn has been offered a place at Laine Theatre Arts, Epsom.

Away studying at Vocational school are
Karla Doorbar – Royal Ballet School,
Laura Reid – Northern Ballet School, and
Lucy Shenton – Elmhurst School for Dance.

We look forward to a successful 2009 and wish everyone a Happy New Year.
